

EPACT Commercial Buildings Energy Efficiency Tax Incentives
Wednesday, April 26, 2006
9am – 4pm
University of Maryland Inn & Conference Center
College Park, MD

A workshop designed for Mid-Atlantic commercial building owners and facility managers interested in learning how to best leverage the Energy Policy Act of 2005 commercial building tax incentives, take advantage of available commercial energy efficiency programs, network with peers and energy efficiency experts.

- 9:00am – 9:30am      Registration and Continental Breakfast
- 9:30am – 10:00am    Introduction
Keynote Speaker: David Rodgers, DOE, Manager, Building Technologies Program (confirmed)
- 10:00am – 10:30am    ENERGY STAR for Commercial Buildings
Katy Hatcher, Environmental Protection Agency, National Program Manager, Public Sector (confirmed)
- 10:30 – 11:00am      Overview of Commercial Buildings Energy Efficiency Tax Incentives
Harry Misuriello, Director, Buildings & Technology Programs, Alliance to Save Energy (confirmed)
- 11:00am – 11:30am    Commercial Buildings Energy Efficiency Tax Incentives: HVAC
Terrence Logee, DOE, Office of Codes & Standards (confirmed)
- 11:30am – 12:00pm    Highlights of Complementary Commercial Energy Efficiency Programs
Roundtable: State Energy Offices, ASE, ACEEE (invited)
- 12:00pm – 1:00pm     Lunch
- 1:00pm – 1:45pm      Commercial Buildings Energy Efficiency Tax Incentives: Lighting
Edward Gray, National Electrical Manufacturer's Association, Energy Policy Manager (confirmed)
- 1:45pm – 2:30pm      Commercial Buildings Energy Efficiency Tax Incentives: Building Envelope
Davor Novesel, National Energy Management Institute, Director of Technology (confirmed)
- 2:30pm – 4:00pm      Breakout Session/Peer Exchange
- **2:45 – 3:15pm      *Optional Tour of the LEED Certified Green Hotel (tentative)***
- 4:00pm                 Adjourn