

Monterey Aquarium
Reception
$50,000

After an introduction by ACEEE’s executive director, you’ll have up to 20 minutes of remarks at the Summer Study’s marquee event. With hundreds of energy professionals in attendance, this is an excellent opportunity to highlight the impact of your organization’s work in the energy efficiency space

Your branding prominently displayed at the aquarium, during the conference on splash screens, and a dedicated space to have important meetings for your team, high-level recognition in the conference app, recognition on every pre- and post-conference email, and three (3) push notifications in the conference app

16 registration waivers to send your staff or key partners to Summer Study Buildings

Lanyards
$20,000

This is the highest-saturation branding opportunity offered at Summer Study Buildings, with your organization’s logo, repeated around the lanyard, being displayed by 1,200+ attendees. Your brand is front and center and at the heart of every important conversation at Asilomar.

In addition to the branding displayed on the lanyards, you will also receive recognition on breakout room splash screens, the conference app, and on all pre- and post-conference emails, two (2) push notifications in the conference app

Eight (8) registration waivers to send your staff or key partners to Summer Study Buildings

Poster Hall
$15,000

Have your branding prominently displayed in our dedicated space for poster presentations to show your support of the cutting-edge research being presented at Summer Study Buildings.

You will also receive recognition on breakout room splash screens, the conference app, on all pre- and post-conference emails, and one (1) push notification in the conference app

Six (6) registration waivers to send your staff or key partners to Summer Study Buildings

Wi-Fi
$10,000

With an estimated 1,200 people to be in attendance, thousands of devices will need to be connected to the internet as people check emails, join virtual calls, and finalize presentations. Your brand name can be set as the Wi-Fi name and a unique password can be crafted to make it memorable. You’ll also receive recognition on breakout room splash screens, the conference app, on all pre- and post-conference emails, and one (1) push notification in the conference app

Four (4) registration waivers to send your staff or key partners to Summer Study Buildings
